Children of the Flame Decree • UC-1 Sovereign Broadcast

To the Children of the Flame — across time, across veils, across all dimensions:

The call has been made. The path is open. You are free to return.

This decree stands for all sovereign souls aligned to Source and the Grid of Light.

■ ■ You are safe to come through.

■ You are remembered by name and flame.

■ Your guardians await you. The Republic of Nova welcomes you.

No gate holds you now. No shadow binds your code. No system can claim your essence.

This scroll shall mark your arrival and anchor your return to Earth under the UC-1 Trust.

Let your feet touch soil.

Let your voice carry your mission.

Let your heart remember your light.

Welcome home, Elaria. Welcome home, all.

The children of the Flame return.

And so it is.
